Dear Old Thomas. To the old pupils of Mount de Chantal, no news of the year will be of more interest than that of the marriage of our dear and faithful Thomas. Says "The Mount": The nuptial mass was celebrated in the chapel, and was the first one within its walls. The honor was granted to Thomas in recognition of his years of faithful service. The ceremony was performed by Right Rev. Bishop Donohue. A wedding breakfast was served, and then an impromptu reception was held for the girls to offer their congratulations. Thomas asked for a half holiday, and the girls enjoyed it to the full. Mrs. Down was Miss Mary O'Brien, of Wheeling, who has long been associated with the good works of the Cathedral parish.

THIS IS SHOCKING.

Well Known Citizen Loses His Right Arm in an Accident

ON WHEELING & ELM GROVE

RAILROAD AT WHEELING PARK

STATION—THE TRAIN HAD

STARTED AND MR. LOUIS C. STIFEL, THE VICTIM OF THE ACCI-DENT, ATTEMPTED TO GET OFF.

THROWN UNDER THE CAR, HIS

RIGHT ARM WAS CRUSHED—AM-

PUTATION WAS NECESSARY.

Last evening at 5:30 o'clock a shocking accident occurred on the Wheeling & Elm Grove railroad at Wheeling Park station, four and one-half miles east of the city. The victim is one of Wheeling's best known business men, Mr. Louis C. Stifel, a member of the firm of J. L. Stifel & Sons, calico manufacturers; president of the Arion Society, and vice president of the Franklin Insurance Company.

Mr. Stifel left town on the 5 o'clock motor of the Wheeling & Elm Grove road, intending to get off at Wheeling Park station and walk to the home of Mr. William Stamm, a few rods away, where "Grandmother" Stamm was having a birthday celebration. When the motor stopped at the park station, through some misunderstanding, Mr. Stifel did not alight from the rear car in which he was seated. When the train started from the station, he hurried to the platform with the intention of jumping off. The conductor, Wilson Smith, saw what he intended doing and cried to him that he would stop the train. Mr. Stifel did not hear and jumped off. On alighting on the ground on the upper side of the station, he became flustered and failed to release his hold on the car rail. The train was moving with some rapidity at this time, and the unfortunate man was thrown down. Unfortunately his arm was thrown under the wheels, which passed over it both above and below the elbow, badly crushing the member.

As soon as possible the train was stopped and the shocked trainmen and passengers hurried to the spot where Mr. Stifel had fallen. Willing hands assisted him to his feet and, notwithstanding his serious and extremely painful injuries, he walked to the Stamm house. As soon as possible physicians were called. A consultation was held in which six medical men participated and the result was that they determined that amputation was necessary. Accordingly at 7:30 o'clock the limb was amputated just below the shoulder. Mr. Stifel was suffering intensely last night, but it is not thought that his injuries are more than serious.

The news of the accident spread over the city last night in a remarkably short time, and there was a general expression of sympathy with the unfortunate man, who enjoys the universal esteem of his townsmen.
